

MARSTON UPDATE

September 9th, 2021

Hugh Deam
Compiled by Donna Bennett
Issue #216

Our Sunday morning quarter included a couple of new variations to our usual list, as we have now returned to exploring the myriad possibilities of Antelope Doubles, a method which has long been domiciled in the shadow of Grandsire which it is characteristic of in its fundamentals.

Sunday 29th August

1260 Doubles (24 m/v)

1 Jane Hedges 2 Ailsa Reid (c) 3 Maarit Kivilo (c) 4 Benjamin Poole (c) 5 Hugh Deam (c) 6 Judith Kirby
Our practice this week also put some time aside to try out another Antelope variation (Leeward Islands), a touch of which is created by calling a Burton Bob.

The Marston Festival on Sunday 5th September was blessed with pretty much perfect weather. We were pleased to be asked to participate in this event, using our handbells to perform a mixture of lapping, tune and method ringing, plus give festival goers a chance to ring and generally boost our profile.

A to Z Miscellany

Q –

Quinton, St Mary & Holy Cross, Buckinghamshire

Photos taken by Paul Lucas of the church, windmill and 17th century almshouses can be seen on the Oxford City Branch website outings pages.

He was so spoilt for choice that morning these two quirky and evocative photos never made it for inclusion.

