This year's AGM of the Oxford City Branch was held in virtual form on Saturday 12th February. Foremost amidst the agenda was ascertaining exactly where every tower in the Branch is now in the backwash of the pandemic. Please find a PDF file of the minutes attached to this email.

A to Z Miscellany:
Z - Zeals, St Martin's church, Wiltshire

Completing the A to Z is the Wiltshire village of Zeals (visited on Saturday 23 June 2012) one of the very few bell ringing opportunities under the letter Z. The ringing chamber entrance is memorably attended by two guardians on either side.

Even if you haven't ever rung at Marston, the vast majority of you will surely have driven past the northern fringe of the village on the A40 and under or upon the flyover. It may now seem as if it has been there since the year for, but it was actually 64 years ago this month that the finalised design plan was unveiled to the public

Upcoming events

Saturday 26th February from 3.00pm - We are linking up with South Leigh once again for an afternoon practice at St James the Great church and hoping to get all eight bells ringing.
