ECO MARKET #1
On Sunday the Eco-Hub based at St Nicholas vicarage held its first Eco-Market. The market was opened by the Lord Mayor of Oxford and was well attended. We rang the bells for half an hour between the conclusion of the Market and the 4.00pm service of Praise and Fellowship.

SHORT BUT ...
Our potential quarter peal to recognise Monday July 19th fell agonisingly short on the final changeover from St Nicholas to Grandsire. Up to that point we had managed 11 method variations, at least a positive step up towards the level where we were at cessation 14 months ago.

Eaton Bray (SMV)
&
Edlesborough (SMV)

Eaton Bray derives its manorial affix from Sir Reginald Bray who fought alongside Henry Tudor at the Battle of Bosworth Field (1485) and who was reputed to have been awarded lands here after finding Richard III's crown on the battlefield and placing it on the head of the new king. As you may surmise from the photos, the bells are rung from an upstairs gallery.
